IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother, Paul Calvin Brown S. L. C. who gave his life in service one year ago today, Jan. 7, 1944.

In my heart there is a picture, More precious than silver or gold. It is a picture of you, dear brother, His memory will never grow old.

Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears in silence often flow, Memory keeps you ever near us, Though you left us one year ago.

We cannot wander to your grave, And leave a flower there, For we know not where you lay, But we shall meet again some day.

Where partings are no more, —Sadly missed by Sister, Mrs. J. H. Spiggle, Gladstone, Va.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, Paul Calvin Brown S. L. C. who gave his life in service one year ago today, Jan. 7, 1944.

One year has passed, dear Calvin, Since the day you went away: You will never be forgotten, For we miss you more each day.

When evening shadows are falling, And we are sitting all alone, In our hearts there's a longing, Dear Calvin, if you could only come home.

We think of you in silence, And often call your name, But there's nothing left to answer, But your picture in the frame.

—Sadly missed by Mother and Father, Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Brown, Gladstone, Va.

REV. LAWSON NOW AT GREENSBORO, N. C.

On our arrival in Greensboro we were given by our church and other Christians of the city. A large number of our members greeted us by preparing supper for us in the parsonage and welcomed the auspicious occasion with a generous open house. Our first service was held Sunday, January 21. The future looks bright for a successful ministry in Greensboro. We extend warm personal greetings to our many friends in Virginia.

Travellers' notes. The (A. C.) Lawsons.

FATHER DARKLEAF

By The Editor

Not much chance this week of turning your mind away from the East Russian offensive. We have had the great numbers who admit to a willingness for the Red to get to Berlin first. And yet as their reason that there is a job there that needs to be done but they dislike for our boys have to do it.

It must be granted that the Red is putting a new angle on the view of how long we have to wait.

From war to peace time we do at this time to put in our own "good word" for music teachers. They are choice souls in any community. Sometimes their work is unappreciated, but have you ever seen a music teacher who is not a community that was not raised by the contribution to its music teacher. (Aside: did you know at Father Darkleaf once agent of two years trying to learn to play the piano). We have forgotten notes, but recall that our teacher had a beautiful rose garden and that we refused to play for annual concert.

Suggestion: during the next war drive, let's get a downtown play window and invite everyone to see the music teacher. What with our overseas to put them on exhibit. We know of many families who have received everything on grass skirts to enemy tanks. Would make a fascinating display.

Presses must roll them: Mother's grief has been down with the cold all week, but had a few working papers of changes in dresses piled up. And this column will have to be brief, because a rush of advertising matter is to make us short on space this week.
